

Craig Colbert – Acting Director of Development

Craig started with Habitat KC as an AmeriCorps member on the construction staff in October of 2004. In 2006, he was hired full time as the Construction Operations Manager and then moved to the development department in March of 2008 working on land acquisition and various grants. His current position began in March 2010.

Born and raised in Kansas City, Craig attended Southwest High School and received his Bachelor of Liberal Arts from University of Missouri-Kansas City. He also has a Certificate in Public Relations from the University of Washington and is currently pursuing a Fundraising Certificate and Masters of Public Administration at UMKC.

Most of Craig's professional life prior to Habitat was in customer service and related positions for various companies in the Kansas City area, Arkansas, Colorado, Nevada and Washington state. He had never worked in construction prior to joining Habitat.

Craig has always had a sense of giving back, and has volunteered in the past with organizations such as the Red Cross in KC, interfaith organizations in Kansas City and Seattle, a Seattle food bank, The Desmond Tutu Peace Foundation and helped form a social entrepreneurial group in Seattle. He enjoys participating in and watching sports - especially the Arkansas Razorbacks. He also likes to travel and has visited Canada, China, Mexico, Guatemala and Belize.
